

Exercise 1

Fill in the blanks using the words below. In some cases you will need to use plural or past tense forms. The correct answers are on the last page.

gulp gullet glottis glutton gluttony gills gulch gully gulf

1. A _____ is a large body of salt water that is surrounded on two sides by land. The _____ of Mexico is an example of this kind of body of water.
2. I ate way too much food over the weekend, I feel like a complete _____.
3. _____ are the parallel holes on the sides of fishes' faces that help them to breathe underwater.
4. The _____ is a flat piece of skin inside the throat that closes to protect the lungs from dirt and dust.
5. I was so hungry after riding my bike seventy kilometers that I came home and put a kilo of pizza down my _____.
6. _____ and _____ are both V-shaped cuts in the ground made by flowing water. The difference between them is that a _____ is deeper and sometimes still has water in it, while a _____ is smaller and is dry.
7. Eating an entire birthday cake alone is an example of _____.
8. Alex needed to wake up quickly for his business presentation, so he _____ a cup of coffee down just before it started.

1. gulf, Gulf 2. glutton 3. gills 4. glottis 5. gullet 6. Gullies/ gulches or Gulches/ gullies; gulch; gully 7. gluttony 8. gulped

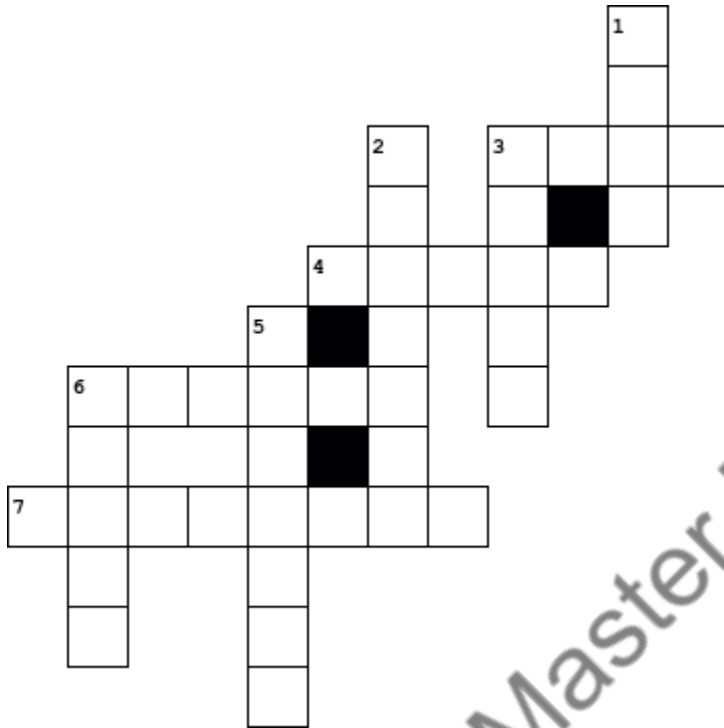

EXERCISES CONTINUE ON PAGE TWO

Exercise 2

Complete the crossword below. Try to remember the words instead of looking at the answers above.

Words with GL

Across

3. the _____ of Mexico and the Persian _____ are bodies of salt water bordered on two or more sides by land
4. a cut in the earth made by flowing water; is now dry
6. a person's throat
7. eating two large pizzas is an example of

Down

1. to quickly drink a lot of liquid
2. if you eat two large pizzas, you are a
3. a deep cut in the earth made by flowing water; may still be wet
5. a flat piece of skin inside a person's throat that protects the lungs
6. fish use these to breathe underwater

ANSWER KEY ON PAGE THREE

ANSWER KEY

Exercise 1:

1. gulf, Gulf 2. glutton 3. gills 4. glottis 5. gullet 6. Gullies/ gulches or Gulches/ gullies; gulch; gully 7. gluttony 8. gulped

Exercise 2:

Across:

3. Gulf 5. gully 6. gullet 7. gluttony

Down:

1. gulp 2. glutton 3. gulch 5. glottis 6. gills

Copyright 2024 Master English With Tim